DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Sovereign Surgical Holdings, L.P. ("Plaintiff") alleges as follows
 2 against defendant Dual Diagnosis Treatment Center, Inc. ("Defendant"):

3 NATURE OF THE CASE

4 1. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and monetary relief in this action for false
 5 designation of origin, trademark registration cancellation, statutory unfair
 6 competition, and common law unfair competition and trademark infringement with 7 regard to Plaintiff's trademark SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE (the "SOVEREIGN
 8 HEALTHCARE MARK"). Plaintiff is a healthcare company that partners with 9 physicians and health systems to develop and execute strategic healthcare plans.
 10 Plaintiff has used the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK since at least as early as 11 2005. Defendant operates medical rehabilitation centers using the mark
 12 SOVEREIGN HEALTH (the "SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK"), a mark that is 13 confusingly similar to the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK. Defendant has 14 violated, and continues to violate, the Trademark Act of 1946 as amended, 15 U.S.C.
 15 section 1051 et seq. (the "Lanham Act"), and California state law through its 16 unauthorized use of a mark confusingly similar to the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE
 17 MARK that is likely to cause, and has already caused, consumer confusion as to the 18 source of Defendant's services.

19 PARTIES

20 2. Plaintiff is a limited partnership organized and existing under the laws
 21 of the State of Delaware that is authorized to do business, and is doing business, in 22 California. Plaintiff's principal place of business is at 27271 Las Ramblas, Suite 350,
 23 Mission Viejo, CA 92691.

24 3. On information and belief, Defendant is a California corporation with its 25 principal place of business at 1211 Puerta Del Sol, Suite 200, San Clemente, CA
 26 92673.

1 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 4. This action arises under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1125 et seq.,
3 and under statutory and common law unfair competition. This Court has subject
4 matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. sections 1331 and 1338, and 15 U.S.C.
5 section 1121 because Plaintiff's claims arise, in part, under the Lanham Act and 6 federal trademark law. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28
7 U.S.C. sections 1338(b) and 1367 over Plaintiff's claims arising under the laws of the 8 State of California.

9 5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because it transacts
10 business in the State of California and has its principal place of business in Southern 11 California.

12 6. Venue is proper in the Central District of California under 28 U.S.C.
13 section 1391(b) and (c) because, on information and belief, Defendant resides in this 14 judicial district, and a substantial part of the events, omissions and acts that are the 15 subject matter of this action occurred within the Central District of California.

16 PLAINTIFF'S SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK

17 7. Since at least as early as 2005, and before Defendant used any similar 18 mark, Plaintiff has continuously, prominently and exclusively used the SOVEREIGN
19 HEALTHCARE MARK to denote the source of its healthcare services. During this 20 period, Plaintiff has committed significant amounts of time, effort and money to 21 developing a widely respected reputation in the healthcare industry through which the 22 SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK has acquired secondary meaning indicating 23 Plaintiff as the source of its high-quality services. Thus, before the acts complained 24 of in this Complaint, members of the general consumer population recognized the 25 SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK as an exclusive source identifier for services
26 provided by Plaintiff.

27 8. Plaintiff has provided substantial services under the SOVEREIGN
28 HEALTHCARE MARK and has extensively advertised and marketed its services in

1 California and Arizona. Plaintiff has widely promoted and marketed its goods in 2 numerous and diverse advertising media to promote the strength and renown of its 3 SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK. Plaintiff has achieved a high level of 4 commercial success in selling services under the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE
 5 MARK and has built a valuable reputation and substantial goodwill.

6 9. Through Plaintiff's extensive efforts, the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE
 7 MARK has been established as a unique source identifier indicating Plaintiff as the 8 origin of the services. Based on Plaintiff's extensive advertising, marketing and sales
 9 of healthcare services under its SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK, the 10 SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK has acquired secondary meaning in the minds 11 of the purchasing public such that consumers identify services sold under the 12 SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK as originating from only one source --
 13 Plaintiff.

14 10. The SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK and the goodwill of 15 Plaintiff's business in connection thereto, are valid and subsisting and remain in full 16 force and effect and have never been abandoned.

17 11. The SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK is extremely valuable to 18 Plaintiff. Plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm if Defendant or other third parties are 19 permitted to sell related goods or services under the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE
 20 MARK or confusingly similar marks such as the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK.

21 DEFENDANT'S INFRINGING ACTIVITIES

22 12. After Plaintiff's adoption and use of the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE
 23 MARK, Defendant began using the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK in connection
 24 with its medical rehabilitation services. Defendant uses the SOVEREIGN HEALTH
 25 MARK in conducting and promoting its business and services, including, without 26 limitation, by displaying the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK on its website, building
 27 signage, billboards and radio advertisements.

28 13. On information and belief, and unbeknownst to Plaintiff, Defendant filed

1 an application to register the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK in International Class
 2 Number 44 (“Addiction treatment services; medical services, namely, treatment,
 3 continuing care, recovery management, and monitoring in the field of addiction
 4 management; and providing cognitive behavior therapy for treatment of addiction”)
 5 on or about April 26, 2013. According to the United States Patent and Trademark
 6 Office’s records, Defendant’s reported date of first use of the mark was December 4,
 7 2008—at least three years after Plaintiff began using the SOVEREIGN
 8 HEALTHCARE MARK. Upon information and belief, the SOVEREIGN HEALTH
 9 MARK was registered on December 10, 2013, U.S. Registration No. 4,447,659.

10 14. Defendant’s conduct as alleged herein has caused and is causing actual 11 consumer confusion, including, without limitation, confusion that is damaging
 12 Plaintiff’s reputation and the goodwill associated with the SOVEREIGN
 13 HEALTHCARE MARK. For example, on March 1, 2017, Plaintiff received an email 14 from an angry consumer forwarding an email from Defendant and stating: “Your 15 ‘company’ has contacted me several times at off hours from different numbers. All 16 illegal activity. Prerecorded message. Cease and desist. Try acting like a legitimate 17 company” Additionally, Plaintiff has received on average one to two calls per 18 week wherein consumers express confusion between Plaintiff and Defendant or 19 complain to Plaintiff about Defendant’s services, mistakenly believing that Plaintiff
 20 is associated with Defendant. Furthermore, on March 30, 2017, a woman walked into 21 Plaintiff’s office looking for a job at “your San Clemente rehab facility,” which is a 22 clear reference to Defendant’s business. Plaintiff has also received complaints from 23 people residing in the community asking why Plaintiff is putting drug addicts into 24 homes within their community.

25 15. Defendant’s advertising, sale and offering for sale of services under the 26 SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK is not authorized or approved by Plaintiff.

27 16. On information and belief, Defendant’s activities complained of herein
 28 constitute willful and intentional infringement of the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE

1 MARK.

2 17. Defendant's use of the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK is likely to 3 cause, and has already caused, confusion in the minds of the consuming public, and 4 has damaged and is damaging Plaintiff by creating the false impression that Defendant
5 is associated with Plaintiff, when it is not.

6 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

7 False Designation of Origin and Unfair Competition

8 [15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)]

9 18. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every 10 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17 above, inclusive, as though fully set
11 forth herein.

12 19. After Plaintiff began using the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK
13 in commerce, Defendant began using the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK, a mark
14 confusingly similar to Plaintiff's SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK, in 15 connection with its medical rehabilitation services.

16 20. Defendant uses the confusingly similar mark in interstate commerce and,
17 on information and belief, has done so with the deliberate intent of capitalizing and 18 trading on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff.

19 21. Defendant's use in commerce of the confusingly similar SOVEREIGN
20 HEALTH MARK will tend to cause and has already caused the relevant public and 21 trade to believe erroneously that Defendant's services are associated with Plaintiff.

22 22. Defendant's use in commerce of the confusingly similar SOVEREIGN
23 HEALTH MARK in connection with its services constitutes a false designation of the 24 origin and/or sponsorship of such services and falsely describes and represents such 25 services.

26 23. By its acts as alleged herein, Defendant has falsely designated and 27 represented services sold in commerce in violation of 15 U.S.C. section 1125(a) and 28 has otherwise used the goodwill of Plaintiff to sell Defendant's own services and has

1 otherwise competed unfairly with Plaintiff.

2 24. On information and belief, Defendant is now committing the acts
3 complained of above with full knowledge that its acts are unlawful.

4 25. Defendant has displayed a willful course of conduct toward
5 appropriation and destruction of Plaintiff's rights in and to the SOVEREIGN
6 HEALTHCARE MARK.

7 26. Defendant's wrongful acts and conduct as alleged herein have permitted
8 or will permit it to generate substantial sales and profits on the strength of Plaintiff's 9 advertising, sales, consumer recognition, and goodwill in connection with the 10 SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK.

11 27. As a result of Defendant's wrongful acts alleged herein, Plaintiff has 12 suffered and will continue to suffer monetary damage in an amount not thus far 13 determined.

14 28. On information and belief, Defendant's acts of unfair competition by 15 false designation of origin in violation of the Lanham Act have caused financial injury
16 and damages to Plaintiff and have been willful, making this an exceptional case within 17 the meaning of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1117, thereby entitling Plaintiff to 18 damages, attorneys' fees, and costs.

19 29. Defendant's acts and conduct constitute unfair competition that has 20 caused and, unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause
21 irreparable harm, damage, and injury to Plaintiff's goodwill and business reputation.

22 30. Plaintiff is entitled to damages as a result of Defendant's actions and 23 conduct and, because such damages alone do not provide Plaintiff with an adequate
24 remedy at law, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Cancellation of Federal Trademark Registration No. 4,447,659

[15 U.S.C. §§ 1064 and 1119]

31. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 30 above, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

32. Plaintiff owns the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK and the goodwill associated therewith. The SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK has acquired secondary meaning and designates Plaintiff as the source of services advertised, marketed, sold or used in connection with the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK.

33. Plaintiff is the senior user of the SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK as it began use of the mark in commerce prior to Defendant's first use of its confusingly similar SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK.

34. As set forth above, Defendant's use of the federally registered SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK creates a likelihood of confusion with Plaintiff's senior SOVEREIGN HEALTHCARE MARK. As a result, Plaintiff has been and continues to be harmed by Defendant's SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK registration.

35. Accordingly, Defendant's U.S. Registration No. 4,447,659 for the SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK should be cancelled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1064 and 1119.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Unfair Business Practices

[CAL. B&P CODE § 17200, et seq.]

36. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 35 above, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

37. Defendant's advertising, selling and offering for sale services under the

1 confusingly similar SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK as described above constitutes 2 unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business practices, and unfair, deceptive, untrue or 3 misleading advertising in violation of section 17200 of the California Business and 4 Professions Code.

5 38. The unlawful conduct alleged herein has caused Plaintiff, and unless 6 enjoined will continue to cause Plaintiff, irreparable harm. Plaintiff has no adequate
 7 remedy at law and is entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief. Plaintiff
 8 is also entitled to restitution of Defendant's ill-gotten gains.

9 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

10 Common Law Unfair Competition and Trademark Infringement

11 39. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every
 12 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 38 above, inclusive, as though fully set
 13 forth herein.

14 40. Defendant's actions and conduct as alleged herein constitute unfair
 15 competition under California common law.

16 41. Defendants' actions and conduct in adopting and using the confusingly
 17 similar SOVEREIGN HEALTH MARK in California constitutes trademark
 18 infringement under California common law.

19 42. Defendant has caused and, unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, 20 will continue to cause irreparable harm, damage, and injury to Plaintiff, including but 21 not limited to injury to Plaintiff's goodwill and business reputation.

22 43. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and is being irreparably
 23 damaged by Defendant's acts in violation of California common law, entitling
 24 Plaintiff to injunctive relief.

25 44. Defendant's actions and conduct as alleged herein are malicious and 26 fraudulent and entitle Plaintiff to punitive damages under Civil Code section 3294.
